

Presentation Titles should quickly describe the content and relevance of your presentation. They should be composed so that an attendee can quickly run their eye down a list of offerings to make selections.

Presentation Title Examples:

Economic Stimulus: Opportunities for Landscape Architects in a New Economy

Building Design Research Connections: The Role of Research in Professional Practice

Stormwater Management: Getting Green Streets to Take Root

Native Plant Connection: A New Look at How Landscapes Can Support Biodiversity

London 2012, the Olympic Catalyst: A Legacy Ambition

Media Roundtable: Journals for Professional Research

Urban Agriculture: New Models for Productive Urban Landscapes

Promoting Prosperity of Cities: Landscape Architecture as an Economic Driver

Client Roundtable: Botanical Gardens and Arboreta

Healing Garden Evaluation and its Value to Professional Practice

Historic Landscapes: Balancing the Past, Present, and Future

The Great Soil Debate: Understanding Alternative Approaches to Soil Design

Olmsted's White City: Exploring Historic Jackson Park

The Sustainable Sites Initiative Performance Benchmarks: An Integrated Approach

Nature + Urbanism

CEO Roundtable: A Changing Profession in a Changing World