

The bespoke wrought iron fence and gate borders the project area; both were designed to meet pool enclosure code requirements. Boxwoods provide evergreen structure in front of the seasonal Hydrangea, Iris, and Tree Lilac blooms.

At the iron gate, a Wisteria-covered arbor frames views beyond, creating a small outdoor room at the entrance to the home's library. Antique brick is inlaid beneath in a herringbone pattern. Boxwood hedging forms tailored edges at the large beds.

From beneath the arbor, the shade pavilion is neatly framed. The arbor offered strategic locations for placing light fixtures, enabling continuity of the nighttime ambiance.

The relocated barn, with double sliding doors facing the pool. The barn's paint scheme is evocative of the materials and plantings selected for the landscape. Large Paperbark Maples add scale and all-season interest.

Looking back across the pool beneath the arbor, the delicate fencing disappears into the background. The Wisteria is carefully trained to keep a tidy appearance at the arbor.

The barn facade centered on the spa, the water feature, and the pool. Groups of steps gradually accommodate the uphill change in grade. Exposed edges of the flagstone treads, copings, and wall caps all receive the same dressed rock-face treatment.

The seating area beneath the shade pavilion is softly lit. The paving pattern is set on a bias to differentiate the space from the surrounding pool terrace.

The barn is a stunning backdrop for the pool terrace, the spa, and the garden spaces. Planted containers punctuate the exterior living spaces with splashes of colorful blooms and foliage.

Inside the barn, the pool and spa terraces act as extensions of the living space.

View up the central long axis of the pool and barn.

The garden at the side of the barn. River Birches frame the entrance to the space. Sweeps of perennials were placed throughout to highlight the seasonal nature of the garden, leaving the evergreen shrubs and groundcover as static winter interest.

The random-cut, PA Bluestone stepping stone pathways lead back towards the pool terrace. The garden mimics the hardscape elements – plantings gradually increase in formality when approaching the tailored pool area.

Smaller footpaths flank the main terrace spaces, creating a hierarchy within the circulation network around the site. Charming Astilbe and Hydrangea bloom during the highest season of use for the pool. A native Yellowwood tree offers shade and blooming interest.

The symmetrical layout as seen from the second story of the barn. Antique brick pavers and bias-set flagstone squares form intricate patterns.

A flagstone spout water feature allows water to gently splash out of the raised spa, into the runnel water feature which crosses the pool deck, finally terminating in the swimming pool.

POOL BARN PLANT LIST

QTY	BOTANICAL NAME	COMMON NAME
2	Acer griseum	Paperbark Maple
2	Betula nigra 'Heritage'	River Birch
2	Cladrastis kentuckea	American Yellowwood
1	Ilex x 'Nellie R. Stevens'	Nellie R. Stevens Holly
2	Magnolia virginiana	Sweetbay Magnolia
12	Picea abies	Norway Spruce
1	Picea pungens 'Hoopsii'	Hoop's Blue Spruce
4	Syringa reticulata 'Ivory Silk'	Ivory Silk Tree Lilac
5	Thuja elegantissima 'Green Giant'	Green Giant Arborvitae
QTY	BOTANICAL NAME	COMMON NAME
146	Buxus sempervirens	American Boxwood
38	Buxus sempervirens	American Boxwood
25	Fothergilla gardenii	Dwarf Fothergilla
75	Hydrangea macrophylla 'Endless Summer'	Endless Summer Hydrangea
7	Hydrangea quercifolia 'Snow Queen'	Oakleaf Hydrangea
33	Ilex crenata 'Chesapeake'	Chesapeake Japanese Holly
5	Ilex x meserveae 'Blue Maid'	Blue Maid Holly
14	Prunus laurocerasus 'Otto Luyken'	Cherry Laurel
32	Prunus laurocerasus 'Schipkanensis'	Skip Laurel
22	Rhododendron catawbiense 'Album'	White Catawba Rhododendron
18	Rosa x 'Noaschnee' P.P.# 9573	Flower Carpet® White Groundcover Rose
1	Syringa patula 'Miss Kim'	Miss Kim Lilac
1	Viburnum carlesi	Korean Spice Viburnum
4	Wisteria floribunda	Japanese Wisteria
QTY	BOTANICAL NAME	COMMON NAME
78	Astilbe japonica 'Deutschland'	Deutschland False Spirea
14	Gaura lindheimeri 'Whirling Butterflies'	Whirling Butterflies Gaura
31	Hosta x 'Francee'	Francee Plantain Lily
61	Iris sibirica 'Cesar's Brother'	Siberian Iris
39	Matteuccia struthiopteris	Ostrich Fern